

Career Choices in Nursing

A Simple Comparison Between A
U.S. Army Registered Nurse
And
A Civilian Registered Nurse

U.S. Army Registered Nurse Civilian Registered Nurse Pay Annual salary and allowances starting at Annual salary depends on location. Average salary in about $45,600 (varies with location) with 2009 for RN with less than 1 year experience was yearly raises. After 15 years in service, $44,343. Average salary after 15 years experience salary exceeds $75,000. A portion of was $69,601 (Source: 2009 RN Magazine Salary your pay is nontaxable and Health Insur-Survey). ance is free. Benefits Free medical and dental care for service Expense is usually shared with employer to include a members. Full coverage for family memdeductible that must be met. bers with minimal premium. Inexpensive life insurance. Unlimited sick leave. Annual 30 days paid vacation, not includ- Dependent on hospital. Full-time nurse may receive Vacation Time ing federal holidays. 2 weeks paid vacation. Where to Work You can choose from 26 medical treat-Entry level jobs are often on the less desirable ment facilities around the world including shifts. Current nursing shortage resulting in in-Germany, Korea, Alaska, and Hawaii. creased overtime hours worked. Adequate staffing levels; high quality of care. Position You would be a staff and/or charge Staff Nurse nurse in addition to being an officer in the U.S. Army. Most importantly, you are a leader. Malpractice Covered entirely by the U.S. Govern-The desired level of coverage is your responsibility. Insurance ment. Environment As an officer, you have autonomy in your Traditional doctor nurse relationship. Nursing popupractice. Ability to change job/location lation in most hospitals: 15% male and 85% female. without loss of seniority or pay. Diverse nursing population: 35% male and 65% female. Specialty Fully funded training of your choice in 1 Some hospitals offer additional training on your own of 4 specialty nursing areas after one Training time. year of experience. Courses are guaranteed. Graduate School Opportunity for full scholarship to gradu-Scholarships and assistance are sometimes offered ate school with regular pay included. At a to limit numbers of individuals. Opportunities minimum there is a 75% reimbursement for graduate courses. Promotion First promotion after 18 months, then Promotions are difficult to attain. They are based on Potential nurses get promoted to Captain at about availability, performance, and experience. the 4 year mark (annual salary of Captain $55,000). Commitment Four years as a nurse with the option to You may not have a commitment to the hospital, continue your career in the Army. but the hospital also has no commitment to you.

Last Updated November 9, 2009 2LT Gerlach