Upcoming Programs

FJLS Speaker: Michael Bryant

March 11th, Noon, Room 1002

Speaker Michael Bryant, a local attorney, will be discussing starting a solo practice and practicing family law. Pizza will be provided, and FJLS is not collecting RSVPs.

Small Business Information and Networking Session

March 13th, 5:30 - 7:30 pm, SLK Lounge

The College of Law's Business Law Society and Intellectual Property Law Society, along with The Office of Professional Development are hosting a Small Business Information & Networking Session on Wednesday, March 13, 2019 from 5:30-7:30 pm at the College of Law, in the SLK Lounge. Various Professionals involved in the operation of small businesses will be in attendance. The first hour of the event will consist of a speed-networking format where participants will go from table to table to talk with professionals and ask questions. The second hour will offer students an opportunity to mingle and follow up.

How to Apply for Post-Grad Public Interest Fellowships

Monday, March 18th, 11:50am, Room 1002

Do you have a passion for helping people? Wondering how to find paid, post-graduate opportunities with nonprofit legal services organizations? Learn more about how to apply for post-graduate public interest fellowships across the country and in Ohio. We welcome Sophia Chang, Pro Bono Director of the Ohio Legal Assistance Foundation, as she discusses OLAF's Justice for All Fellows program. Kelly Tomlinson will also discuss how to find opportunities through Equal Justice Works, Skadden, and other fellowship resources. Many fellowships require you to start building relationships in your first year and apply in your second or third year, so all class years are encouraged to attend. Please RSVP through Symplicity no later than Thursday, March 14th. Pizza will be served for those who RSVP.

Relativity Training and E-Discovery Discussion

Tuesday, March 19th, 11:50 am, Room 1002

Staff from Hire Counsel will be on campus to train students on the use of Relativity, one of the most commonly used e-discovery platforms. The presentation will also include a discussion of how e-discovery is used in litigation, what it involves, and why it is important to know about e-discovery even if you don't plan to do document review (especially if you plan to work for a law firm or large company). RSVP on Symplicity no later than Friday, March 15th. Pizza provided for those who RSVP.

Judicial Clerkship Information Session

Thursday March 21st, 11:50 am, Room 1002

Professor Lammon, Professor Porter, current federal clerks Molly Davis ('18) and Stephanie Gurgol ('15), and April Johnson ('19) will discuss the application process and interview tips for clerkship applications. This session is open to all current Toledo Law Students. Please RSVP on Symplicity by Monday, March 18th

RSVP POLICY

Please note The Office of Professional Development's RSVP Policy:

The Office of Professional Development will be following a strict RSVP policy for the 2018-2019 school year. Any programming put on by OPD that advertises that pizza or food will be provided, requires an RSVP by the date listed. OPD will only order food for those that RSVP by the deadline. This includes required programming, such as mandatory class meetings, specifically whether you are attending at 11:50am or 5:15pm.

Additionally, other programming such as networking events or events with alumni involvement, may list a required number of RSVPs by a certain deadline to go forward. If the number is not reached, the event may be canceled. Please RSVP to these events as soon as you know you will be able to attend.

RSVP early, often, and encourage your friends!

OPD Evening Hours

The OPD staff is available in the evenings by appointment. If you would like to make an appointment, please contact us at opd@utoledo.edu or 419-530-2851.

- Wednesday, March 13th
- Tuesday, April 2nd
- Wednesday, April 24th

Professional Development Activities

We are placing additional emphasis on professional development this year, and we will continue to add professional development offerings throughout the rest of your law school career. Below are opportunities open to all students and participation in the activities is strongly encouraged.

Please reach out to OPD if you have questions, suggestions, or need help finding an activity that fits within your schedule.

Job Fairs

To review information on these and other job fairs on the OPD's Job Fairs page, click here. Students who register for any job fairs should also send an e-mail to Kelly Tomlinson at kelly.tomlinson@utoledo.edu to notify her that they have registered.

Indybar Diversity Job Fair 2019

Student Registration NOW OPEN!

The 12th annual Indianapolis Bar Association Diversity Job Fair has a strong history of success. More than 700 students from 32 states and 86 law schools across the nation have interviewed over the last twelve years. Over 50 percent of interviewing students received callbacks for second interviews as a result of the 2018 job fair.

Over the course of 24 hours, there will be:

- Numerous networking opportunities available for students through a reception, interviews and a luncheon
- More than 25 firm, government, court and corporate legal employers conducting hundreds of interviews with students
- A workshop to help interviewing students prepare for success

About the Diversity Job Fair

We seek candidates who represent all aspects of diversity and who are looking for a one-of-a-kind legal community in a Midwestern city that has both cosmopolitan style and small-town charm. We invite fall 2019, full-time 2L law students (graduating May 2021) or part-time 2L and 3L law students (graduating December 2021/May 2022) to participate in the fair.

Student Registration NOW OPEN!

Following registration, students will be provided with automatically-generated passwords that will allow them to use the system throughout the next few months. This link and password will be different than those used by the students for OCI at each law school.

The student registration deadline is June 19, 2019. Only students who have registered, bid and obtain interviews can participate in Diversity Job Fair events.

Legal Programs, Scholarship, and Contests

The City of Chicago Department of Law is seeking Post-Graduate Fellows for 2019

The City of Chicago Department of Law invites graduating law students to apply for a Post-Grad Fellowship position for 2019. Post-Grad Fellows will participate in challenging work that reflects the demands and rewards of public service, as well as a realistic picture of what it is like to practice law for the City of Chicago. They must have funding in place before they apply.

Post-Grad Fellows receive incomparable hands-on legal experience working side-by-side with Department of Law attorneys. They will be assigned to work in a Law Department practice Division* that interests them and participate in a wide variety of activities. Post-Grad Fellows may:

- assist in trial preparation;
- attend depositions;
- observe real estate closings;
- attend client meetings;
- attend court proceedings;
- conduct legal research and analysis; and
- draft memoranda, briefs, and contracts.

Post-Grad Fellows who qualify for an Illinois Supreme Court Rule 711 License may represent the City in:

- mandatory tort arbitrations in the Circuit Court of Cook County;
- grievance arbitration hearings and disciplinary proceedings before the Police Board and Human Resources Board;
- prosecutions of Municipal Code Violations in Administrative Hearings or in the Circuit Court of Cook County;
- cases before the Circuit Court of Cook County (Criminal, Civil and Chancery Divisions) and Federal Court;
- hearings before the Department of Administrative Hearings and the Department of Business Affairs and Licensing;
- settlement agreement negotiations; and
- real estate closings.

They may also depose or examine witnesses in trials in State and Federal Court.

The Law Department seeks talented, promising individuals from a wide variety of backgrounds. The Law Department is committed to increasing opportunities for minorities in the legal profession, and it is proud that its staff reflects the racial, cultural, and ethnic diversity of Chicago. The Law Department is an Equal Employment Opportunity and Military Friendly Employer.

Please note that Chicago residency is not required for Post-Grad Fellows.

Application Process

Application by email to DOL.Application@cityofchicago.org. Please note that applications will not be forwarded to Divisions* for consideration until all application materials, including law school transcripts, are received.

Application Materials

Save and send all attachments in one pdf document in this order:

- Cover letter (In addition to identifying three ranked Division* preferences, please indicate that your application is for a 2019 Post-Grad Fellowship, that you have funding already in place, and if you have or are eligible for your Illinois Supreme Court Rule 711 License);
- Resume;
- Law School Transcript (official or unofficial); and
- One writing sample.

MIKE EIDSON SCHOLARSHIP

The Mike Eidson Scholarship Fund was established by the AAJ Women for Justice Education Fund in 2008, in honor of AAJ Past President Mike Eidson, whose vision and generosity inspired it. The Mike Eidson Scholarship awards $5,000 annually to a female student entering her third year of law school (the student can be enrolled in a three-year day program or four-year night program) who has demonstrated a commitment to a career as a trial lawyer, along with dedication to upholding and defending the principles of the Constitution, and to the concept of a fair trial, the adversary system, and a just result for the injured, the accused, and those whose rights are jeopardized. The winner must attend the 2018 AAJ Annual Convention in Denver, Colorado in order to accept the scholarship. Travel and accommodation will be provided.

2018 CYCLE

The 2018 scholarship cycle is closed. The next cycle will open in February 2019.

Applications must include the following:

- A completed application form. Download the form here.
- A letter explaining your interest in a career as a trial lawyer, and your dedication to upholding and defending the principles of the Constitution, and how you have demonstrated this
- A resume
- A completed form verifying your student status. Download the form here.

Every applicant must be enrolled in an ABA accredited law school. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Submit applications to:

Public Interest Summer Fellowship and ADR Fellowship Applications (Deadline 3/29/19 at 5:00 pm)

Students who will be working as volunteers or for nominal pay in a public interest position this summer are invited to apply for a Public Interest Summer Fellowship through Toledo Law. The number of fellowships and amounts may vary depending on available funding (awards for summer 2019 may be up to $4,000 each). For the purpose of the Public Interest Summer Fellowships, a public interest position includes working for a non-profit organization providing services to underrepresented clients/groups/interests, or working for a government entity. Please note that before applying you must have secured a qualifying public interest position.

Additionally, a fellowship is available for individuals interested in Alternative Dispute Resolution.

The deadline for applications for both fellowships is 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 29, 2019.

Click here for eligibility and application information.

If you have any questions about the Public Interest Fellowships contact Kelly Tomlinson at kelly.tomlinson@utoledo.edu or the Alternative Dispute Resolution Fellowship contact Professor Maara Fink at maara.fink@utoledo.edu.

Special meeting for attorneys and law students regarding the Eclipse Immigration Clinic

Cindy Kirby would like to invite you to attend a special meeting to inform attorneys and law students about the Eclipse Immigration Clinic that will be starting in Northwest Ohio. The plan is to hold one clinic each month. These are general advice clinics, and ongoing representation will not be provided. We are seeking attorneys and law students who are interested in volunteering to assist immigrants. Attorneys and law students without immigration law experience are needed to interview the immigrants who make appointments. Each clinic session will have one immigration attorney present to provide assistance and specific information.

Please join us for this informational meeting. Lunch will be provided.

Thursday, March 14, 2019
12 noon
Toledo Bar Association - Third Floor

Please RSVP by phone (419-692-4433) or email (Cindy@KirbyFamilyLaw.com) by March 12th so that we have enough food. (We know how hungry you lawyers get.) Please feel free to contact Cindy Kirby with any questions you have.

Labor & Employment Student Writing Competition

The Ohio State Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section is pleased to announce the 2019 Student Writing Competition. This Competition was created to encourage relevant and innovative scholarly work in the area of Labor and Employment.

A judging committee comprised of distinguished practicing attorneys and faculty members at Ohio ABA-accredited law schools will review the submissions and award first, second, and third-place cash prizes to the winning student-authors.

The cash prizes for such competition has been established as follows: First Place: $3,000; Second Place: $2,000; and Third Place: $1,000. Funding for the Competition is sponsored by the Ohio State Bar Association Section on Labor and Employment Law—an energized community of over 1,300 lawyers representing employees, labor unions, and employers in Ohio.

All students at ABA-accredited law schools in Ohio are invited to submit entries, pursuant to the rules of the Competition detailed below. The group has also determined that for the purposes of this Competition, Northern Kentucky University (NKU)-Chase is considered an Ohio law school.

The authors of the winning articles will also be invited as guests of the OSBA to the Labor and Employment Section's Annual Midwest Labor and Employment Law Conference and honored during the Conference.

Articles must be submitted online at www.judgify.me/L&Ewritingcompetition
by midnight on March 30th, 2019

SECTION OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT LAW STUDENT WRITING COMPETITION

Description

The Ohio State Bar Association Section on Labor and Employment Law is pleased to announce its 2018 Student Writing Competition. The Competition was created to encourage relevant innovative scholarly works in the area of Labor and Employment, and to attract Ohio law students to the labor and employment law practice fields. A judging committee comprised of distinguished practicing attorneys and faculty members at Ohio ABA-accredited law schools will review the submissions and award first, second, and third-place cash prizes to the winning student-authors. The cash prizes for such competition have been established as follows: First Place: $3,000; Second Place: $2,000; and Third Place: $1,000. Funding for the Competition is sponsored by the Ohio State Bar Association Section on Labor and Employment Law—an energized community of over 1,300 lawyers representing employees, labor unions, and employers in Ohio.

Please share this opportunity with students who may be interested in participating. All students at ABA-accredited law schools in Ohio are invited to submit entries, pursuant to the rules of the Competition detailed below. For all purposes of this Competition, Northern Kentucky University (NKU)-Chase is considered an Ohio law school.

Rules

1. This Competition will be administered by a Committee of at least five persons, each of whom will be either a faculty member at an Ohio law school or a member of the Ohio State Bar Association Section on Labor and Employment Law. Each student entry will be read by at least two Committee members.

2. Judges will pay specific attention to these questions:

- Is the analysis original, novel, fresh, and/or innovative?
- Is the topic original and not simply descriptive – i.e., does the author handle the topic with originality and not simply describe a court decision or other legal development?
- Is the paper well written, with strong footnoting following the Bluebook and providing insightful information?
- How well is the author's position argued and supported?
- What is the quality of the author's legal analysis?

3. Entries also will be evaluated on grammar, spelling, usage and syntax, clarity, structure, overall appearance, strength of writing, and strength of consideration of competing viewpoints.
