

Checklist

PLEASE RETURN THIS CHECKLIST WITH YOUR INTERVIEW

Before submitting your recordings to the Veterans History Project at the American Folklife Center of the Library of Congress, be sure you have included the following:

- 1. Recorded interview, not to exceed 90 minutes. After recording the interview, the plastic tabs should be removed from the audio or video cassettes to prevent recording over them. Cassettes must be labeled with the full name of the veteran or civilian interviewee and his or her birth date (month/day/year).
- 2. Completed biographical data sheet for each veteran or civilian interviewee (see Biographical Data Form).
- 3. Release form signed by each veteran or civilian interviewed (see Veteran's Release Form).
- 4. Release form signed by the person(s) producing the recording. This includes interviewers and recording operators (see Interviewer's Release Form).
- 5. Audio and Video Recording Log.
- 6. Photographs (not more than twenty). Photographic prints should be numbered and dated on the back lower-right corner using a soft (no.1) pencil. For slick prints where it is difficult to write on the back, enclose them in individual labeled envelopes. Please do not write on the prints with a pen or marker. Slides may be labeled on the frame. Scrapbooks and photograph albums containing more than twenty images are acceptable, but donors are encouraged to describe the contents as fully as possible.
- 7. Photograph Log.
- 8. Release form signed by the photographer(s) (see Interviewer's Release Form).
- 9. Selected letters, diaries, and other printed and handwritten manuscripts relating to the veteran or civilian interviewee.
- 10. Manuscript Data Sheet.

Please tell us how you heard about this project: _____

Veteran's Release Form

TO BE COMPLETED BY VETERAN OR CIVILIAN

(In cases of deceased veterans, to be completed by the donor of the material.)

I, WENDELL B LAWRENCE, am a participant in the Veterans History Project (hereinafter "VHP"). I understand that the purpose of the VHP is to collect audio- and video-taped oral histories of America's war veterans and of those who served in support of them as well as selected related documentary materials (such as photographs and manuscripts) that may be deposited in the permanent collections of the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress. The deposited documentary materials will serve as a record of American veterans' wartime experiences; and may be used for scholarly and educational purposes. I understand that the American Folklife Center plans to retain the product of my participation as part of its permanent collection and that the materials may be used for exhibition, publication, presentation on the World Wide Web and successor technologies, and for promotion of the Library of Congress and its activities in any medium.

I hereby grant to the Library of Congress ownership of the physical property delivered to the Library and the right to use the property that is the product of my participation (for example, my interview, performance, photographs, and written materials) as stated above. By giving permission, I understand that I do not give up any copyright or performance rights that I may hold.

I also grant to the Library of Congress my absolute and irrevocable consent for any photograph(s) provided by me or taken of me in the course of my participation in the VHP to be used, published, and copied by the Library of Congress and its assignees in any medium.

I agree that the Library may use my name, video or photographic image or likeness, statements, performance, and voice reproduction, or other sound effects without further approval on my part.

I release the Library of Congress, and its assignees and designees, from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of such recordings, documents, and artifacts, including but not limited to, any claims for defamation, invasion of privacy, or right of publicity.
