COURSE/CATALOG DESCRIPTION (REQUIRED)

Explanatory and persuasive writing in both personal and public genres; instruction and practice in generating, focusing, developing, researching and presenting ideas in ways consistent with one's subject, purposes and intended audience. From Composition I and Composition II, no more than 6 hours apply toward graduation.

COURSE OVERVIEW (Overview can be modified if desired; however, course requirement statement should be left as is)

Students spend the semester engaging in multiple writing tasks associated with their lives in various communities. The class focus will be on responding effectively to texts, situations, and ongoing public arguments. The class will also participate in fulfilling the mission of a major research university—contributing new knowledge that our democracy can use to better the lives of its citizens.

- Course Requirements:
 - Students will produce a minimum of 5,000 words in final draft form over the course of the semester. This will mean roughly 18 to 20 finished pages. At least one paper will be a documented essay using MLA format and incorporating a number of sources with a sustained discussion that results in a paper of at least 5 pages.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (REQUIRED)

Students who successfully complete ENGL 1110 will be able to:

1. Establish a purpose and create a thesis in their own writing and be able to identify purpose and thesis in the writing of others (TAG: 1) Rhetorical Knowledge);
2. Demonstrate the knowledge of how genres influence reading and writing by producing writing in multiple genres and by incorporating various tools of arrangement, including the successful use of organizational patterns, transitional and topic sentences, and audience awareness (TAG: 1) Rhetorical Knowledge);
3. Develop arguments and perspectives through the successful incorporation of research, examples, details, rhetorical appeals, and counter-arguments (TAG: 1) Rhetorical Knowledge and 2) Critical Thinking, Reading, and Writing);
4. Demonstrate effective revision skills (global revision, editing, and proofreading) that leads to clear, concise and error-free prose (TAG: 3) Knowledge of the Composing Process and 5) Knowledge of Conventions);
5. Develop critical reading skills, including the ability to locate rhetorical features in a text, identify the audience for a given text, and identify strengths and weaknesses in an author's arguments and reasoning; (TAG: 1) Rhetorical Knowledge and 2) Critical Thinking, Reading, and Writing)
6. Locate credible scholarly sources, evaluate the reliability of those sources, and effectively use those sources within a text, including the ability to cite sources in-text and develop a works cited page (TAG: 1) Rhetorical Knowledge and 5) Knowledge of Conventions);
7. Use electronic environments for the drafting, reviewing, revising, editing, and submitting of texts (TAG: 3) Knowledge of the Composing Process and 6) Composing in Electronic Environments); and
8. Demonstrate the ability to critique their own and peers' writing by understanding the collaborative and social aspects of the writing process (TAG: 3) Knowledge of the Composing Process and 4) Collaboration).

General Education Statement: (REQUIRED)

This course fulfills a General Education and Core Curriculum requirement at the University of Toledo.

TEACHING STRATEGIES

(Insert information describing how the learning process will be structured and achieved; identify the delivery modalities (face-to-face, online or blended), modes of communication and the learning activities that will be used)

Example: This section of ENGL 1110 will be a discussion based course; students are expected to arrive to class on-time and be prepared to discuss course texts and topics. Lectures will be used when necessary. The class will be a blended course; discussion, writing activities, and peer review may take place both in-class and on the course Blackboard site, using features such as discussion boards and peer group rooms. More information about the online components of the course will be offered at a later date.

PREREQUISITES AND COREQUISITES (REQUIRED)

Students are placed into ENGL 1110 with an ACT score of 19 or higher or an ACT score of 18 or lower with a HS GPA of 2.76 or higher.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND ANCILLARY MATERIALS (REQUIRED)

(Provide full text citations including author, title, publisher, edition and copyright year for all books and ancillary, recommended, optional, or supplemental materials printed and electronic. If your course is OTM/TAG, or CTAG be sure to also include ISBN numbers).

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS (REQUIRED FOR DL COURSE)

(Insert specifics about any hardware (clickers, computer, iPad, etc.) and/or software (Keynote, Photoshop, etc.) that will be required. Indicate any access requirements for online learning tools (Blackboard, Alex, etc.) that will be needed in order to complete the course. If there are no technology requirements, simply state "None".)

Example:

Use of the Blackboard course management system is required

All final copies of written work for this class must be submitted on time to the Blackboard Drop box created for that assignment. All course documents, including the course syllabus, handouts, and other important course information, will be posted on Blackboard. Course announcements will be made on the Blackboard course home page. Students are responsible for consulting the Blackboard course homepage frequently to keep current on course announcements. Use of the Blackboard 9.1 system is a formal requirement of this course.

POLICY STATEMENT ON NON-DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY (ADA) (REQUIRED)

The University is an equal opportunity educational institution. Please read The University's Policy Statement on Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability Americans with Disability Act Compliance.

Resources Related to Sexual or Gender-based Violence and Harassment

The University of Toledo cares greatly about the health and well-being of our students, staff, and faculty, and takes all sexual or gender-based violence and harassment very seriously. If you have experienced sexual assault, sexual harassment, intimate partner violence, and/or stalking and want a confidential place to obtain support and information, please contact the Center for Student Advocacy and Wellness on the main campus in Health and Human Services Room 3017. You can call 419.530.2497 during regular business hours and 419.530.3431 for 24 hour assistance from a trained advocate. In-person, walk-in appointments are also available Monday-Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Center for Student Advocacy and Wellness provides free and confidential advocacy and counseling services to students, faculty and staff. The YWCA H.O.P.E. Center also can be accessed as an off-campus confidential resource at 419.241.7273.

Faculty, teaching assistants, and other university employees are mandated reporters of any incidents of sexual or gender-based violence or harassment. Thus, any disclosures of sexual or gender-based violence or harassment on or off campus made to faculty or teaching assistants, or other university employees must be forwarded to the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Office will then contact you regarding your rights, your option to participate in the investigation, interim safety measures and/or academic accommodations, and the need to proceed with an investigation (even if none is requested). Your participation in the process is voluntary. You may call 419.530.3152 to file a complaint or visit the following website for more information and resources: <http://www.utoledo.edu/title-ix/>. Policies relating to Title IX can be found at: <http://www.utoledo.edu/title-ix/policies.html>.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS (REQUIRED)

The University of Toledo is committed to providing equal access to education for all students. If you have a documented disability or you believe you have a disability and would like information regarding academic accommodations/adjustments in this course please contact the Student Disability Services Office ((telephone: x4981 or e-mail: studentdisabilitysvs@utoledo.edu .) This office's web address is <http://www.utoledo.edu/offices/student-disability-services/index.html>.

COURSE POLICIES EXPECTATIONS (PLEASE INCLUDE ALL POLICIES AND EXPECTATIONS THAT ARE NEEDED FOR YOUR COURSE; YOU CAN MODIFY POLICIES AS NEEDED. BELOW IS A LIST OF COMMON POLICIES WITH LANGUAGE THAT CAN BE MODIFIED TO FIT YOUR COURSES/PROCEDURES)

Attendance (Also see the University of Toledo Missed Class Policy:

<http://www.utoledo.edu/policies/academic/undergraduate/pdfs/3364-71-14%20Missed%20class%20policy.pdf>):

Students' active participation in this writing class will help them to achieve the goals of this course and accomplish personal academic goals. Therefore, regular attendance and informed and active participation are expected. Students will be writing in this class frequently and in-class writing activities may not be made up outside of class unless the student has an excused absence. Missing these assignments may lower class evaluation and course grades.

In the event that a student must miss class, it is that student's responsibility are to notify the instructor by voice mail or in writing. It is also the student's responsibility to find out what was missed and to complete all work.

Late Work:

Assignments are due on the day specified. Late work will be subject to a lowered grade although the penalty may be waived if the instructor determines that the absence was an excused absence.

Plagiarism (Academic Dishonesty Policy:

<http://www.utoledo.edu/policies/academic/undergraduate/pdfs/3364-71-04%20%20Academic%20dishonesty.pdf>):

Representing the work of another as one's own, whether through direct copying, unattributed paraphrasing, or inadequate citation practices constitutes plagiarism. If a student does not know how to give credit where credit is due—and that is a legitimate concern—see your course instructor and review the process. A paper that is plagiarized in whole or in part may receive an NC, the student producing it may receive a final grade of NC, and the paper may be turned over to the administrative supervisors to determine further action. Plagiarism is grounds for dismissal from the University.

Submission of Work:

It is expected that all student work submitted for a grade will be typed in a standard 12-point font, double spaced, and with one-inch margins.

Evaluation:

Student writing this semester will be evaluated primarily for its rhetorical effectiveness. Does it adequately consider the audience to whom it is addressed? Is it convincing, captivating, inventive? It will also be evaluated for classroom values that demonstrate the student's preparation for the tasks at hand, participation in class conversation and collaboration, and engagement in the common texts and tasks. A third measure will be made of the academic value of the text. Does it speak, when it is supposed to, to an audience of scholars? Does it contribute to the production and dissemination of new knowledge?

GRADING (REQUIRED)

(Insert a statement that fully explains how course grades are calculated. Clearly state the points, percentages, and/or weights for each assignment of the course grade. Indicate the instructor's timeframe for providing grades and feedback on assignments. This section may also include specifics regarding grade related policies such as the late submission of assignments, the grade of Incomplete, extra credit, the proctoring of tests, etc. In addition to (or in lieu of) traditional tests, consider the use of authentic assessments that emphasize active engagement and that are based on real-world experiences.)

(THE FOLLOWING MUST BE INCLUDED WITH THE GRADING SECTION)

In order to pass this course, the final grade must be a C or above. Grades below a C are recorded as No Credit (NC). Although an NC will not affect a student's GPA, Composition I will have to be repeated until a grade of C or better is achieved..

Midterm Grading (optional)

Include a statement regarding how midterm grades will be calculated and why they are important.

Final Grading

Define the grading scale for your course.

Grading Scale:

	100-92: A	91-90: A-
88-89: B+	87-82: B	81-80: B-
78-79: C+	77-72: C

COMMUNICATION GUIDELINES (FEEL FREE TO MODIFY EXAMPLE AS NEEDED)

(Insert specific requirements and etiquette expectations for online discussions, email, and other forms of communication and indicate the instructor’s timeframe for responding to student emails, etc.)

Example: Online Communication Guidelines

- Email: Students are expected to check their UT email accounts daily for possible course information. In addition, students should feel comfortable emailing the class instructor with questions or concerns; the instructor will make every effort to respond to email correspondence within 48 hours.
- Discussions: Students will be participating frequently in online class discussions; a lack of participation in online discussions will affect one’s final grade. Students should check the Assignment Sequences to locate information on when discussions will occur, the focus of the discussions, and student requirements for the discussions.
- Netiquette: Students are expected to be courteous and civil to peers during any online class discussion. Online classes are subject to the same regulations and penalties as outlined in the Student Handbook. Please familiarize yourself with basic principles of online etiquette by visiting www.albion.com/netiquette.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES (FEEL FREE TO MODIFY AS NEEDED)

(Insert information on how the institution’s academic and student support services and resources can help students succeed in the course, and how students can access these services.)

Example:

The following are campus student support services that students may find useful for this course:

- The Writing Center: <http://www.utoledo.edu/success/writingcenter/>
- Rocketing to Success Workshops: <http://www.utoledo.edu/success/trio/calendar.html>
