

The Department of History at The University of Toledo is accepting applications for the following tenure-track Assistant Professorships:

Asian History. Send letter of application, c.v., graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation by December 1 to Asian History Search, Department of History, MS 503, 2801 W. Bancroft, Toledo, OH 43606-3390.

U.S. Political History. Preference is for a specialty in foreign relations. Send letter of application, c.v., graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation by December 1 to U.S. Political History Search, Department of History, MS 503, 2801 W. Bancroft, Toledo, OH 43606-3390.

U.S. Social and Cultural History. Preference is for a specialty in labor and urban history. Send letter of application, c.v., graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation by December 1 to U.S. Social and Cultural History Search, Department of History, MS 503, 2801 W. Bancroft, Toledo, OH 43606-3390.

All three positions begin August 2009. A Ph.D. in history is required by the time of appointment. Teaching load includes survey, specialized undergraduate, and graduate courses. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the AHA Annual Meeting in New York in early January 2009. The University of Toledo is a Carnegie Doctoral/Research-Extensive, state-supported university with over 22,000 students. The History Department grants both undergraduate and graduate degrees including the Ph.D. The University of Toledo is committed to increasing diversity and encourages women and members of other underrepresented groups to apply. UT is an Equal Access, Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer and Educator.