

Attention K-12 and Community College Teachers

Study in South Africa and Lesotho

U. S. Department of Education Fulbright-Hays Group Project
June 21 - July 30, 2008

- Examine South Africa's interaction with Lesotho
- Learn about the cultures and history of Southern Africa
- Participate in seminars with African professors, politicians, civil servants and community activists
- Engage in service learning experiences with African teachers, care givers and students
- Enjoy activities like game viewing, hiking and shopping
- Embellish your credentials with a Fulbright-Hays participant award
- Visit non-malarial and low risk areas in Southern Africa
- Fulbright-Hays Group Projects grant pays 85% of travel, food, and lodging overseas expenses
- Cost share expense is only $850 for over five weeks abroad

Fulbright Teachers with King Letsie III

For full information about program requirements, itinerary and leaders visit www.utoledo.edu/as/ids/global/Africa2008index.html

Applications due January 10, 2008

Or Contact:

Professor Richard Weisfelder
Department of Political Science;
MS #511
University of Toledo
Toledo, OH 43606-3390
(419) 530-2265
rweisfe@utnet.utoledo.edu