

Lake Erie Center Summer Environmental Research Institute Courses

2 credit hours each

5 days long each

Levels: advanced undergraduate (4980), graduate. (6980).

Open to Bowling Green State University.

GIS Applications in the Lake Erie Region

GEPL 4910/5910

Monday June 11-Friday June 15

Dr. Kevin Czajkowski GEPL

9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Lake Erie Fish Ecology

EEES 4980/6980.002

Monday June 25-Friday June 29

Dr. Carol Stepien DES

& Brandon Kulik

9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Phytoremediation: An investigative field approach to developing a new technology

EEES 4980/6980.003

Monday July 9-Friday July 13

Dr. Daryl Dwyer DES

9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Field Geology of the Lake Erie Region

EEES 4980/6980.004

Monday July 23-Friday July 27

Dr. Mark Camp DES

9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Classes to be held At the Lake Erie Center,
6200 Bayshore Rd.,
Oregon, OH 43618

(adjacent to Maumee Bay State Park)

For further info: see our LEC website

www.lakeerie.utoledo.edu

(419)530-8360

University of Toledo Students Register in the normal way through the www.utoledo.edu, Bowling Green
State University students, please contact the UT

Registrar at (419)530-4844

