Shopper’s Rules of Engagement

- Women eligible to shop in the closet include individuals who have participated in at least one class or program at the Eberly Center in the last year or are current UT students. Eligibility will be determined by Eberly Center staff.
- Shoppers must make an appointment to shop; appointments are scheduled to last one hour, call 419.530.8570 to schedule. Shoppers will be required to answer a questionnaire prior to each appointment.
- Shoppers must call the Eberly Center to cancel or reschedule at least one hour before scheduled appointment. No-call/no-shows will have to wait 30 days before she can schedule another appointment. Two no-call/no-shows will result in permanent loss of shopping privileges.
- Shoppers are allowed to shop one time every three months.
- In order to serve as many women as possible, the number of items is limited for each shopper each visit. Ask an Eberly Center staff member for more details.
- Shoppers should come to appointment wearing the proper undergarments and minimal make-up in order to be considerate of the people that will try on clothes after them.
- Appointments will be for one shopper at a time, shoppers are welcome to invite one guest to help them shop.
- No returns or exchanges are allowed.
- No food or drink permitted in the closet.