2015 UT 18th Annual Banned Books Week Vigil Schedule

Thursday, October 1, Fifth Floor Carlson Library

The American Library Association
Banned Books Week
(September 27 to October 3)

9 a.m. “Welcome,” Barbara Floyd, director, Ward M. Canaday Center for Special Collections and UT Libraries, and Dr. Jeffrey Wilkinson, Communication Department Chair

9:30 “Reflections,” UT Provost John Barrett

10 Sharon Barnes, Interim Chair, Women and Gender Studies, "Silencing through Stereotypes: Native Americans in Children’s Literature"

10:30 Sarah Ottney, Toledo freelance journalist, “Toledo Free Press Memories”

11 David Tucker, Communication, “The Helicopter Problem”

12 p.m. Linda Smith Lecture: Renee Heberle, Political Science, "Do Criminals have First Amendment Rights? Civic Death and the U.S. Constitution."

1 Matt Yockey, Theatre and Film, “Innocence Seduced: A Brief History of Comic Book Censorship”

1:30 Jeffrey Wilkinson, Chair, Communication, “The Shifting Lines of Intellectual Property in the Digital Age”

2 Independent Collegian Managing Editor Amanda Pitroff and Forum Editor Morgan Rinckey, "College Confidential: Censorship of College newspapers."

2:30 Glenn Sheldon, Jesup Scott Honors College, "Trigger Warning Here! A Reflection On 'Trigger Warnings' In Higher Education"

3 "Jeopardy," Independent Collegian Newspaper staff

3:30 Torrie Jadlocki, local photojournalist, "Naughty Girls or Nasty Minds? The Evolution of Pin-Up Models"

4:00 Cindy Rameriz, Bedford High School English teacher, "You Can't Teach That!"

4:30 Irene Alby, Theatre and Film, “Banning, Hate, and Murder: The Laramie Project"