

2016 19th Annual UT Banned Books Week Vigil Program

Celebrating the Right to Read and Think Freely

(During the American Library Association's Banned Books Week, September 26 to October 1)

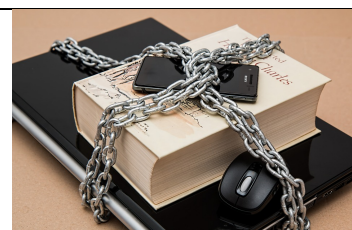

Thursday, September 29, Fifth Floor Carlson Library Fifth Floor Carlson Library

- 9 a.m. Barbara Floyd, Interim Director, University of Toledo General Libraries, and Jeffrey Wilkinson, Communication Department Chair
- 9:30 Emily Numbers, Community Art Coordinator, Inside-Out Alum, "Free expression and the Inside-Out Prison Exchange."
- 10 Sharon Barnes, Women's and Gender Studies, "Stereotyping Indigenous Peoples in Children's Books."
- 10:30 Sarah Ottney, Former Editor in Chief at Toledo Free Press, "Censorship and Media Ethics"
- 11 "The Not So Free Press: Global Media Troubles," Arjun Sabharwal, UT General Libraries.
- 11:30 Warren Woodberry, Toledo author, "W.W. III: The War Against Women."
- Noon: Keynote speaker, Sam Nelson, Chair, Political Science and Public Administration, Owning the Words: Intellectual Property, First Amendment Law, and the Parlous State of Free Speech."

Banned Books Week 2016 spotlights:

DIVERSITY

<http://www.codebox.es/wp-content/uploads/2015/12/transporte-urgente.jpg>

- 1 p.m. Matt Yockey, Theatre and Film, "Lifting the Veil: Banning the Graphic Novel Persepolis."
- 1:30 Lou Hebert, Toledo broadcaster and historian, "Revealing the Hidden Rules of Broadcast News."
- 2 David Tucker, Communication, "Words."
- 2:30 Independent Collegian Editor-in-Chief, Jessica Harker, "Oops! When lol Posts Backfire."
- 3 "Forbidden" Jeopardy! with IC Student Editors
- 3:30 "The Tale of Scrotie McBoogerballs"— Catcher in the Rye Revisited by South Park.
- 4 Cindy Ramirez, Bedford High School English teacher, "What? Can You Teach THAT?"
- 4:30 Ed Lingan, Chair, UT Theatre and Film, "Banned Songs."

READ. THINK. SPEAK. CREATE FREELY

UT Banned Books Coalition