

University of Toledo Police Crime Awareness Bulletin

James Grothaus, Detective
25 Apr 2011

BOLO – CRIMINAL TRESPASS – UPDATE

Raymond Velazquez Jr.

B/M, 20, D.O.B. 04.29.1990, 5'05", 155, BLK, BRO

Velazquez received Trespass Warnings on 01.14.2011 (ARMS#: 110038) and 01.21.2011 from UTPD. On 01.27.2011 UTPD was notified by Det. Sauer, University of Bowling Green Police Department, Velazquez was staying in room 3308 B, and had two outstanding felony warrants, which were for burglary and theft. After an administrative search was conducted, Velazquez was found hiding in a locked bathroom. Velazquez was arrested and booked into Lucas County Jail (LCJ) for Criminal Trespass and his outstanding felony warrants.

UPDATE: On 04.12.2011 UTPD was notified that Velazquez was at the Crossings. When Officers attempted to identify Velazquez, he lied to Officers about his identity, Velazquez was identified and arrested for Criminal Trespass (ARMS#: 110536). On 04.18.2011 UTPD was notified that Velazquez was inside Carlson Library. As Officers attempted to locate Velazquez, he attempted to evade Officers by ducking in an out of book isles, Velazquez was caught and arrested again for Criminal Trespass (ARMS#: 110569). If seen on campus contact UTPD at: 419.530.2600.

