Police Department Overview
The University of Toledo The UTPD is located in the Transportation Center on the Main Campus and a substation in room 007 of the Mulford Library on the Health Science Campus. UTPD provides 24-hour uniformed police services to all three campuses serving a daily population of more than 31,000 students, faculty, staff, employees, patients and visitors, making UTPD one of the most active police departments in northwest Ohio.

All UTPD officers are sworn State of Ohio Peace Officers commissioned by the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy. Police Officers are entrusted through the Board of Trustees in accordance with Ohio Civil Service Law and Section 3345.04 of the Ohio Revised Code. University law enforcement officers have misdemeanor and felony arrest authority, as well as all other enforcement powers granted to peace officers in the state of Ohio. UTPD officers are subject to all training and education requirements established by the Ohio Peace Officers’ Training Council and The University of Toledo.

UTPD officers require a professional demeanor, exceptional judgment and the right disposition. Officers are carefully selected through a comprehensive hiring process and have demonstrated knowledge and skill through a rigorous field training period. In addition to providing excellent police services, officers continue to train and gain knowledge throughout their law enforcement career.
