Faculty are invited to join the Office of Government Relations for a workshop to learn more about engaging with state and federal offices.

Key takeaways from this session will include how to engage with the Office of Government Relations as a resource to:

- Connect with local, state and federal elected officials
- Obtain letters of support for grant applications
- Participate in visits to and from government officials, including setting up meetings and invitations to campus
- Communicate your subject matter to officials

For more information, please contact Amy Thompson, amy.thompson@utoledo.edu.