Faculty members have the right to attend meetings, speak to issues before our Faculty Senate, and are encouraged to express their views on university issues to their respective representatives. Students, alumni, emeritus faculty, staff members, community members, and administrators, etc., are all invited to speak to issues before our Faculty Senate.

Senators and guests are asked to silence their cell phones. Senators arriving late should report to Professor Lucy Duhon, Faculty Senate Executive Secretary, after the meeting to insure their attendance is recorded.
