2012-13 Change in Parent Marital Status Worksheet

Your 2012-2013 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been updated to reflect a change in your parents’ marital status. Before our office can continue processing your application, we must verify this updated information.

Please read and answer all of the following questions. Provide the requested documentation as required. Please print and use black ink.

1. As of the date that you filed your 2012-2013 FAFSA, was the parent whose information is on the FAFSA married?
   - Yes
   - No
   If you answered “Yes,” complete the following:
   - Names of parent(s)/stepparent in this household: ______________________________
   - Date of marriage: ______________________________

2. Is the parent whose information is on the FAFSA divorced?
   - Yes
   - No
   If you answered “Yes,” submit a complete copy of the divorce decree.

3. As of today’s date, is the parent whose information is on the FAFSA legally separated?
   - Yes
   - No
   If you answered “Yes,” what was the date of the legal separation? ______________________________
   If you answered “Yes,” submit a copy of the legal separation agreement and a legal document showing child support requirements (if applicable).

4. As of today’s date, is the parent whose information is on the FAFSA informally separated (separated, but there is no legal separation agreement)?
   - Yes
   - No
   If you answered “Yes,” please submit copies of utility bills and/or rental agreements for the last two months in each parent’s name from two different residential locations.
