Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been selected for a review process called verification. During this process, the Office of Student Financial Aid will compare the information you reported on your FAFSA with additional documents that you are required to submit to our office. Federal law mandates that we complete this review prior to awarding you any federal financial aid. It is to your advantage to complete this process as soon as possible so that your financial aid won’t be delayed.

When filing the FAFSA, students, spouses, and parents should transfer federal tax return information electronically from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) onto the FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool. This tax return information, if unchanged, will be considered “verified” for FAFSA purposes and you will not be required to submit a 2012 Federal Tax Return Transcript from the IRS.

If you filed a 2012 Federal Tax Return and are unable to transfer your tax return information onto your FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, you are required to submit a 2012 Federal Tax Return Transcript from the IRS with this Verification Worksheet. Methods for requesting a tax return transcript can be found at www.irs.gov under “Order a Return or Account Transcript.”

If you are required to but have not yet filed your 2012 Federal Tax Return, you must do so prior to completing the verification process.

INSTRUCTIONS: PLEASE COMPLETE THIS WORKSHEET AND RETURN IT WITH ALL REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION ATTACHED. INCLUDE YOUR ROCKET NUMBER ON ALL PAGES OF EACH DOCUMENT. INCOMPLETE AND/OR UNSIGNED DOCUMENTS WILL BE RETURNED FOR COMPLETION AND WILL DELAY PROCESSING TIME.

DEPENDENT STUDENTS:

If you were required to report parent information on the FAFSA, you are a dependent student. List your family members below, including:

- yourself (even if you do not live with your parents)
- your parent(s)/stepparent (list only the parent(s)/stepparent whose information was provided on the FAFSA)
- your parents’ other children, if your parents provide more than half of their support and the children would be considered dependent when applying for federal student aid (do not include children for whom your parents are paying child support)
- other people, only if they live with your parent(s) now, they receive more than half of their support from your parents, and they will continue to receive this support between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014

As of the date that you filed your 2013-2014 FAFSA, please indicate the marital status of the parent(s)/stepparent whose information was provided on your FAFSA:

- Single (never married)
- Married/Remarried
- Separated
- Divorced
- Widowed

INDEPENDENT STUDENTS:

If you were not required to report parent information on the FAFSA, you are an independent student. List your family members below, including:

- yourself
- your spouse (if married)
- your children and/or stepchildren (do not include children for whom you are paying child support)
- other people, only if they live with you now, they receive more than half of their support from you (and your spouse, if married), and they will continue to receive this support between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014

As of the date that you filed your 2013-2014 FAFSA, please indicate your marital status:

- Single (never married)
- Married/Remarried
