Based on the information you provided on your 2016-2017 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the Office of Student Financial Aid is requesting additional information to clarify a conflict regarding your household's family members.

Dependent Students
(You were required to report parent information on the FAFSA.)

List your family members below, including:

- yourself (even if you do not live with your parents)
- your parent(s)/stepparent (List only the parent(s)/stepparent whose information was required to be reported on the FAFSA, including biological parents who are unmarried and living together.)
- your parent(s)/stepparent’s other children (List children only if your parent(s)/stepparent will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017, or the children would be considered dependent when applying for federal student aid.) Do not include children for whom child support is being paid.
- other people, only if they live with your parent(s)/stepparent now, they receive more than half of their support from your parent(s)/stepparent, and they will continue to receive this support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017

Independent Students
(You were not required to report parent information on the FAFSA.)

List your family members below, including:

- yourself
- your spouse (if married)
- your and your spouse’s children (List children only if you (or your spouse, if married) will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017, or the children would be considered dependent when applying for federal student aid.) Do not include children for whom child support is being paid.
- other people, only if they live with you (and your spouse, if married) now, they receive more than half of their support from you (and your spouse, if married), and they will continue to receive this support from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017

If your handwriting is illegible, this worksheet will be returned to you as an incomplete document.
