Domestic and Foreign-Born Human Trafficking Resource

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND SOCIAL JUSTICE INSTITUTE

P.A.T.H. Guidebook

Purpose of this Guidebook: The purpose of this guidebook is to assist service providers in linking victims, survivors, or thrivers of human trafficking, during their recovery process, to the services that best suit their needs.

What's in the Guidebook: Agency names, locations, contact information, and general information about services are provided.

Care Coordinating agencies have information about the PATH Care Coordinator and their contact information.

PATH Approved agencies have information about the Point-of-Contact and their contact information.

An asterisk (*) denotes agencies that have services available to Adults and Youth.

F-B denotes agencies that provide services for foreign-born trafficked clients.

Definition of Terms:

PATH stands for Partners Against Trafficking in Humans. PATH is a community-wide, outcomes-based, coordinated, transparent, and data-driven response to human trafficking. The PATH Project's mission is to address the barriers and gaps in direct service coordination for victims of human trafficking and to improve service delivery. PATH provides a continuum of care, moving victims to become survivors, and survivors to become thrivers.

Care Coordinating agencies are PATH Approved and provide a PATH Care Coordinator that works with clients who have been trafficked, connecting them to services through using the PATH Model.

PATH Approved agencies have been through the training process and provide a Point-of-Contact. These agencies have committed to coordinate and guide clients through their agency services.

PATH Approval Seeking agencies have not completed the process to be considered PATH Approved, however they have either been trained on PATH, human trafficking and/or trauma-informed care; have signed the Memorandum of Understanding; or attend the Lucas County Human Trafficking Coalition.

Non-PATH Approved Coalition agencies do not have a Memorandum of Understanding, but are represented on the Lucas County Human Trafficking Coalition.
