

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO
MEDIATION SERVICES
MEDIATION SERVICES PROVIDED BY
THE UT CENTER FOR MEDIATION & LEGAL RIGHTS
AND THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO COLLEGE OF LAW

In an effort to resolve student and community member disputes, the University of Toledo, Legal Specialties Program has established Campus Mediation Services (CMS) through the UT Center for Mediation & Legal Rights (The Center). The purpose of CMS is to give students and members of the community an opportunity to mediate (cooperatively resolve) personal, roommate, and housing disputes. Trained mediators will mediate cases referred to the Center.

GOALS OF THE PROGRAM

- To give students and community members an opportunity to participate personally and significantly in resolving their disputes.
- To allow students and community members to explore settlement options in a non-confrontational atmosphere where any issue can be put on the table, no matter how personal or difficult.
- To provide prompt resolution of disputes and avoid the cost, complexity, and formality of a court-ordered resolution.

WHAT IS MEDIATION?

Mediation is a process conducted by an impartial third party called a mediator. The mediator helps the parties communicate and find a solution to their disputes. However, the mediator has no authority to impose a settlement. The Center will provide mediation for:

- Personal (non-violent) disputes
- Roommate disputes
- Housing disputes

SERVICES PROVIDED

CMS offers mediation services to currently-enrolled UT students and members of the community. Mediations will be scheduled at the McQuade Courtroom on the University's campus.

VOLUNTARY

Mediation is a voluntary process. The parties are not required to reach an agreement and are free to terminate the process at any time.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Mediations are confidential. Information on the mediation will not be given to anyone without the student's or community member's written permission, unless required by law.

APPOINTMENTS

Mediations are scheduled by appointment only, generally within 48 hours. Please contact John Schlageter, III, Esq. at 419.530.7748 or John.Schlageter@Utoledo.edu to schedule an appointment.
