

Tori Smith, M.S., P.T., N.C.S

Clinical Assistant Professor

419-530-6677

tori.smith@utoledo.edu

Education

- Bachelor of Science in Physiology
Michigan State University
East Lansing, Michigan
- Master of Science in Physical Therapy
Duke University
Durham, North Carolina

Licensure

- Physical Therapist
State of Ohio

Certification

- Neurologic Clinical Specialist
American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties

Teaching Responsibilities

- PhyT 5070 Neuroscience (course coordinator)
- PhyT 5080 Neuroscience Seminar
- PhyT 6600 Neuromuscular Rehabilitation I
- PhyT 6610 Neuromuscular Rehabilitation II

Scholarly/Clinical Interests

- Community Mobility Requirements of various populations
- Neurological disorders

Professional/Clinical Activities

- Physical Therapist specializing in the treatment of neurological disorders -
CVA (stroke), spinal cord injury, brain injury, and multiple trauma.
Department of Rehabilitation Services
University of Toledo Medical Center

Professional Memberships

- American Physical Therapy Association
 - Neurology Section
 - Orthopaedic Section
- Ohio Physical Therapy Association

Presentations at International, National and Local Meetings

“Environmental Barriers” 14th Annual Geriatric Medicine Symposium, March 5, 2010.

The Role of Therapy During In-Patient Rehabilitation After Lumbar Spine Surgery, Dec. 5, 2009.

Poster presentation: "A Case Report Examining the Effectiveness of Ventilatory Strategies with a Client Who Suffered a C6 Spinal Cord Injury." Encheff, J, Conkwright, M, and Smith, T; The University of Findlay, Findlay, OH. Accepted for presentation at the Ohio PT Association Annual Fall Conference, Aurora, OH, Nov., 2006

Coordinator and Presenter, Spinal Cord Injury Inservices, 2006

Medical University of Ohio

Topics:

- Basic Information about Spinal Cord Injuries
- Early Interventions for Spinal Cord Injured Patients
- Quadraplegic Transfers and Bed Mobility
- Paraplegic Transfers and Bed Mobility

Audience: Physical Therapists and Occupational Therapists

Curriculum Vitae

- Available upon request.

12/14/2012