National Scholarships

Barry Goldwater Scholarship - For current sophomores and juniors with a background in Math, Science, and Engineering and with a career focus in research. The internal deadline 12/12/2014; Program deadline 1/30/2015. For more information go to: www.act.org/goldwater/yybull.html

James Madison Scholarship - For students who are committed to teaching American History, American Government, and Social Studies in grades 7-12. The award is for tuition to work on M.A. in related areas. Internal deadline 1/16/2015; Program deadline 3/1/2015. For more information go to: www.jamesmadison.com/

Harry S. Truman Scholarships - For students interested in pursuing a graduate degree linked to a future career in public service. Internal deadline 1/16/2015; Program deadline 2/3/2015. For more information go to: www.truman.gov

Morris Udall Scholarships - For current sophomores and juniors with interests in Environmental Issues, Community Health Care, and Public Policy Issues related to Native American and Alaska Native communities. Internal deadline 1/10/2015; Program deadline 3/4/2015. For more information go to: www.udall.gov

Marshall Scholarship – This scholarship is for U.S. citizens possessing a four-year degree in order to help finance graduate study (up to two years) in the U.K. Applicants must have a minimum GPA of 3.7; the field of study is open; with up to 40 awards each year. The deadline is in early October. For more information go to www.marshallscholarship.org/about/generalinformation

Application Process:
1. If you are interested in one of these scholarships, please notify Dr. Larry Connin. He will forward your name for internal review.

2. You will receive notification if you receive a nomination from the internal review process. At this point you can obtain an application for these scholarships by clicking on the individual links.

3. Please bring completed application(s) to:
   Dr. Larry Connin
   Jesup Scott Honors College
   MacKinnon Hall, Room 1010D
   PH (419) 530-6037
   or
   Monica Condon, Secretary
   Jesup Scott Honors College
   MacKinnon Hall, Room 2000D
   PH (419) 530-6031

Revised 8/27/14