

Goals

- Publish collaborative, multidisciplinary policy research of the highest quality
- Educate the next generation of scholars and leaders through multidisciplinary course work and practical experience.
- Participate in formulating policy that empowers parents to fulfill their primary responsibility to care, nurture, and educate their children.