

Community Rally

Musicians, performers and speakers on violence against women.

Women's March

Women march 1.5 miles, symbolically taking back the night, streets, homes, and lives from violence.

Survivor Speak Out

Survivors of violence against women share experiences in an open-mic Speak Out.

Men's Program

Educational program on men ending violence is held during the Women's March.

Resource Fair

Local agencies and organizations

Silent Witness Project

Display of figures representing local women murdered by intimate partners.

The Clothesline Project

Display of shirts created by survivors of violence against women and family or friends of women murdered.

Women Unite! Take Back The Night

Saturday, April 25th

Start High School

2010 Tremainsville Road

6 pm Resource fair and displays open

7 pm Community Rally

15th Annual Toledo-Area

Take Back the Night

End violence against women!

- Free Event
- Rain or Shine (indoor rally and resource fair)
- Free professionally supervised child care
- Accessible event with transportation during women's march
- Free shuttle from UT departs UT Transportation Center at 6 pm, departs Start at 10:30 pm.

Sponsors: Adelante, Bethany House, Cocoon Shelter, Family and Child Abuse Prevention Center, Independent Advocates, Nirvana Now, People Called Women, Shay's for Life Foundation, YWCA Hope Center and Battered Women's Shelter. University of Toledo Sponsors: Eberly Center for Women, Sexual Assault Education & Prevention Program, Social Work Department, UT United for Respect & Nonviolence, Women's and Gender Studies Department.

For information 419/530-3432 or tbtntoledo@yahoo.com