St. Louis Diversity Job Fair Fact Sheet

The St. Louis Diversity Job Fair will be held on August 7-8, 2015. Law students who are registered for the Job Fair will receive email announcements with all Job Fair specifics or may find information posted on the Job Fair web site: www.stldiversityjobfair.com.

On Friday, August 7, there will be law student/attorney networking dinners for all law students who are interested in attending who are registered for the Job Fair. The networking dinners will give lawyers and students an opportunity to do some informal networking. There is no fee for the dinners.

Once a student registers for the Job Fair, they will be given information regarding participating employers' hiring criteria, offices/cities for which each employer is interviewing, and J.D. year(s) required by the employer.

Each employer schedule allows for 16 interviews, and each interview is 20 minutes in length. Interviews begin at 8:30 a.m. with one 10 minute break in the morning, a lunch break and then one more mid-afternoon break before the last set of interviews for the day. Employers and students will be provided with a complimentary private sit-down lunch. Interviews will end at 4:30 p.m.

Registration and bidding can be completed at <https://law-sldjf-csm.symplicity.com/>.

THE REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS MAY 30, 2015

It may take up to one business day to get your initial registration approved. Students should not submit a second registration and/or contact the Career Services Offices for assistance if they have not allowed the Job Fair administrator enough time to review registration materials. The same request for patience applies for resume and additional documents approval.
