

“Humanitarianism Through Institutionalization:
The Medical Treatment of Ohio’s Insane in the 19th Century”

A Lecture by Dr. Deborah Marinski, Assistant Professor of History, Ohio Southern University

Scenes of the Toledo State Hospital, ca. 1910

Thursday, October 23, 3 p.m.

Ward M. Canaday Center for Special Collections, 5th Floor, William S. Carlson Library
The University of Toledo

Lecture is in conjunction with the exhibit

“From Institutions to Independence: A History of People with Disabilities in Northwest Ohio”

Free and Open to the Public. Reception to Follow.
Co-sponsored by the UT Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta