

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER.	PAGE
Introduction.....	9
I. How Duke Hermann reigned in Thuringia, and King Andrew in Hungary, and how the dear St. Elizabeth was born at Proseburg, and was brought to Kimmach.....	103
II. How the dear St. Elizabeth honoured God in her Childhood.....	116
III. How the dear St. Elizabeth had to suffer for God.....	122
IV. How the young Louis was faithful to the dear St. Elizabeth, and how he married her.....	123
V. How the Duke Louis, husband of the dear St. Elizabeth, was agreeable to God and man.....	128
VI. How the Duke Louis and the dear St. Elizabeth lived together before God in the holy state of marriage.....	140
VII. How the dear St. Elizabeth practised the virtue of mortification.....	144
VIII. Of the great charity of the dear St. Elizabeth, and of her love of poverty	151
IX. Of the great devotion and humility of the dear St. Elizabeth.....	161
X. How the dear St. Elizabeth was known and cherished by the glorious St. Francis, and how she had for spiritual director Master Conrad of Marbourg.....	168
XI. How the Lord was pleased to manifest his grace in the person of the dear St. Elizabeth.....	180
XII. How the Duke Louis protected his poor people.....	183
XIII. How a great famine devastated Thuringia, and how the dear St. Elizabeth practised all the works of mercy.....	194
XIV. How Duke Louis returned to his wife, and how he rendered true justice to his dear monks of Hohenhartshunn.....	202
XV. How the great Duke Louis took up the Cross, and of the great grief wherewith he bade farewell to his friends, his family, and the dear St. Elizabeth.....	209
XVI. How Duke Louis died on his way to the Holy Land.....	224
XVII. How the dear St. Elizabeth heard of the death of her husband, and of her great agony and tribulation.....	229
XVIII. How the dear St. Elizabeth was driven out of her castle with her little children, and reduced to extreme misery, and of the great ingratitude of man towards her.....	234

CHAPTER	PAGE
XIX. How the All-merciful Jesus consoled the dear St. Elizabeth in her loneliness and misery, and how the sweet and most clement Virgin Mary came to instruct and fortify her.....	244
XX. How the dear St. Elizabeth refused to marry a second time, and how she consecrated her wedding garments to Jesus, the spouse of her soul.....	257
XXI. How the dear St. Elizabeth received the remains of her husband, and how they were interred at Regenhartsbrunn.....	264
XXII. How the Thuringian knights made Duke Henry repent of his wickedness, and made him render ample justice to the dear St. Elizabeth... ..	270
XXIII. How the dear St. Elizabeth renounced the worldly life, and, retiring to Marbourg, assumed there the habit of the Order of the glorious St. Francis.....	274
XXIV. Of the great poverty in which the dear St. Elizabeth lived, and how she advanced in humility and mercy towards all creatures.....	285
XXV. How the dear St. Elizabeth refused to return to her father's kingdom, in order that she might more surely enter the kingdom of Heaven.....	289
XXVI. How the dear St. Elizabeth distributed all her property amongst the poor.....	292
XXVII. How the dear St. Elizabeth learned from Master Conrad, how in all things to destroy self-will.....	307
XXVIII. How the Lord exercised his power and mercy at the intercession of the dear St. Elizabeth, and of the marvellous efficacy of her prayers.....	319
XXIX. How the dear St. Elizabeth, when aged twenty-four years, was summoned to the eternal wedding feast.....	324
XXX. How the dear St. Elizabeth was buried in the church near her Hospital, and how even the little birds of heaven celebrated her obsequies.....	341
XXXI. Of the wonderful miracles obtained from God by the intercession of the dear St. Elizabeth, and how anxiously her brother-in-law, Duke Conrad, wished to have her canonized.....	346
XXXII. How the dear St. Elizabeth was canonized by Pope Gregory, and of the great joy and veneration of the faithful in Germany, on the occasion of the exaltation of her relics at Marbourg.....	360
XXXIII. Of what became of the children and relatives of the dear St. Elizabeth after her death, and of the great evils that sprung from her race... ..	384
XXXIV. Of the noble Church that was erected at Marbourg in honour of the dear St. Elizabeth; and how her precious relics were profaned; and also the conclusion of this history.....	409