

CONTENTS.

I.

	PAGE
Origin and Commencement of the War	9
Görgey's Promotion	20
Further Operations of this Army	21
The Winter Campaign of 1849 on the Upper Theiss	24

II.

Victorious Advances of the Hungarian Army in March and April, 1849	37
---	----

III.

Relief of Comorn	53
------------------------	----

IV.

The Bombardment of Pesth and Storming of Ofen	58
Operations in the Neighborhood of Comorn in the months of June and July, 1849	62

V.

PAGE

The Numbers and Situations of the Armies at the time of the Austro-Russian Invasion, after the Departure of Görgey from Comorn	74
Some Account of the Closing Operations of the Hungarian Armies, and of the respective Dissolution of each in the order in which it took place	76
The Hungarian Army of the South under Vetter.....	ib.
The Army in Transylvania under Bem.....	79

VI.

The Hungarian Main Army under Dembinsky.....	83
--	----

VII.

The Army of Görgey, and the Corps d'Armée of Stein, Count Vécsey, and Kazinczy.....	89
---	----

VIII.

Comorn after the Departure of the Main Army under Görgey ..	109
Capitulation of Comorn	125

IX.

Biographical Sketches of the most prominent Statesmen and Generals	140
Louis Kossuth, Governor of Hungary	ib.
Count Louis Batthyány.....	145
Bartholomew Szemere.....	148
Ladislans Csányi	150
Baron Ladislaus Perényi.....	158

PAGE

Arthur Görgey.....	154
George Klapka.....	161
Maurice Perczel.....	164
John Damjanics	165
Louis Aulich	167
Joseph Bem	168
General Henry Dembinsky.....	171