

Contents

7	Preface	175
10	A Journey through the Map of Eastern Europe	288
37	National Language and National Scholarship	301
37	The national revival	308
45	Language and the language reform	314
53	Literature and drama	318
65	Music	323
69	The fine arts	325
73	The national past and historical awareness	327
87	National scholarship, scientific societies	332
93	Nationality and Liberty	333
93	Defence and recognition of the national identity	334
104	The search for allies	335
115	National unity	336
132	National liberty	337
146	Emergence of East European Nationalities	338
146	The Poles	339
164	The Russians	340
181	The Czechs	341
195	The Hungarians	342
209	The Croats	343
217	The Slovenes	344
223	The Slovaks	345
233	1848 in the Habsburg Empire	346
246	The Serbs	347
261	The Greeks	348

274	The Rumanians
288	The Bulgarians
301	The Albanians
308	The Ukrainians
314	The Lithuanians
318	The Estonians
323	The Latvians
329	Epilogue
335	Bibliography