

Michael Guinness, MD, FACEP, FAAEM, FRCPC

Clinical Assistant Professor, Dept of Emergency Medicine
St. Luke's Hospital Site Coordinator
University of Toledo College of Medicine
guinn@bex.net
419-893-5968

Professional areas of interest:

- Development
- Risk management
- Primary care & occupational medicine coordination in the ED.

Personal areas of interest:

- Fitness, medical education.

Hometown: Toronto, Canada

Medical School: University of Toronto

Residency: University of Toronto (FM)

Residency: Mercy St Vincent Medical Center (EM)

Professional Affiliations

Chair, Department of Emergency Medicine, St. Luke's Hospital
Medical Executive Committee, St. Luke's Hospital
Patient Care Committee, St. Luke's Hospital
Cardiovascular Morbidity & Mortality Committee, St. Luke's Hospital
Former Program Director, Emergency Medicine Residency Program, St. Vincent Med Ctr

Publications

Einstein E, Brickman K, Ryno J, Guinness M. Fluconazole as a prophylactic measure for Tinea Gladitorum in High School Wrestlers. Clinical Journal of Sport Medicine 19:5, 412-414. Sept 2009.

Presentations

"Iron & Dyshemoglobinemias", EM Resident Curriculum, The Toledo Hospital, May 2010.

"Thyroid Disorders", EM Resident Curriculum, University of Toledo, Mar 2010.

"Risk Management in the ED", EM Resident Curriculum, University of Toledo, Feb 2010.

"Pelvic Inflammatory Disease", EM Resident Curriculum, University of Toledo, Jan 2010.

"Environmental Exposure Illness", EM Resident Curriculum, University of Toledo, Sep 2009.

"Peptic Ulcer Disease", EM Resident Curriculum, University of Toledo, Aug 2009.

"Syncope", EM Resident Education Symposium, University of Toledo, Jul 2009-10.

Procedural Cadaver Lab, EM Residency, University of Toledo College of Medicine, Jul 2009-10.