

Walid R. Mahmoud, MD, FACEP

Assistant Medical Director, Emergency Services, UTMC
Director of Ultrasound Education, EM Residency
Clinical Assistant Professor, Dept of Emergency Medicine
University of Toledo College of Medicine
walid.mahmoud@utoledo.edu
419-383-3888

Professional areas of interest:

- Difficult Airway
- Critical Care Medicine

Personal areas of interest:

- Swimming, triathlons, international travel, international EM.

Medical School: Ain Shams University Medical School, Cairo, Egypt

Residency: New Hanover Regional Medical Center (IM)

Residency: Mercy St Vincent Medical Center (EM)

Research & Publications

Comprehension of Medical Terminology among Emergency Department Patients.

Borchdt Triad – A case presentation of gastric volvulus.

Hand Held Sonography in detecting Post-traumatic Pneumothoraces – ACEP News Literature Review.

Methylprednisolone, Valacyclovir, or Combination for Vestibular Neuritis – ACEP News Literature Review.

Knowledge of HIV among College Students in Egypt.

Acute Demyelinating EncephaloMyelitis(ADEM).

Literature review for uses of factor VIIa.

Presentations

“Diabetic Ketoacidosis & Hyperosmolar Hyperglycemic Nonketotic Syndrome”, EM Resident Curriculum, University of Toledo, Mar 2010.

“FAST Exam”, EM Resident Education Symposium, University of Toledo, Jul 2009-10.

