Title of Clerkship:
Bridge to Internship: Capstone Course-- UTMC

Elective Year(s):
M4

Department:
Multidisciplinary, Office of Medical Education (Sponsoring Department)

Type of Elective:
Clinical [√] Non-Clinical/Research [ ] Basic Science [ ]

Clerkship Site:
IISC + HSC

Course Number:
INDI796

Blocks Available:
Any during 4th year

Number of Students/ Block:
Any (Simulation experience limited to 40 in AY2012-13)

Faculty: Multidisciplinary

Elective Description/ Requirements:
This is an online course, along with simulation experience via the Interprofessional Immersive Simulation Center (IISC), developed by the Office of Medical Education to prepare students for the internship and residency. The core competencies required for successful completion of this course including medical knowledge, interprofessional and communication skills, systems based practice, practice based improvement, professionalism and lifelong learning.

Length of Clerkship:
2 weeks elective credit

Links to EPOs:
Educational Course Objectives:

| K-15 | 1) Demonstrate knowledge of role of residents in clinical care of patients and medical education. |
| S-1  | 2) Demonstrate ability to communicate in a professional, humanistic and clinically appropriate manner with patients, peers and other physicians. |
| S-8, S-10 | 3) Demonstrate knowledge of common scenarios requiring medical attention and supervision while on call as an intern. |
| S-10 | 4) Demonstrate an ability to create and document orders in an electronic format effectively and safely. |
| P-3 | 5) Develop skills to be lifelong learners. |
| P-1 | 6) Develop teaching skills related to pedagogy and assessment. |
| P-3 | 7) Demonstrate coping skills to deal with stress of medical training as a resident |
| K-15 | 8) Develop an understanding of CQI initiatives commonly utilized in residency education and in hospitals related to patient safety. |
| K-15 | 9) Develop an understanding of patient safety issues related to in-hospital as well as outpatient settings. |
| P-1 | 10) Demonstrate an ability to manage personal finances and plan for the Future. |
| K-15 | 11) Develop a clear understanding of legal ramifications of patient care. |
| S-10 | 12) Recognize and manage common medical and surgical emergencies. |
| S-10 | 13) Demonstrate knowledge of common medical issues related to critical care and emergency management of patients. |
| S-6 | 14) Develop fundamental clinical skills relevant to general medical care and specific medical and surgical disciplines. |
| P-7 | 15) Demonstrate ability to work on interprofessional teams. |

Professionalism:
- UTCOM students will meet or exceed the institutional standards for professionalism as stated in the current Educational Program Objectives.
- Students will demonstrate independent, self-directed learning in the Completion of the core and optional on-line modules, hot topics, emergencies and procedural skills

- Students will demonstrate professional behavior during team exercises and all interactions with the staff of the IISC and the Hillebrand Center.

Instructional Methods:

Online didactics (core requirements include minimum of six hours of core didactic material, 4 hours of emergency management series and 4 hours of “Hot topics” relevant for internship and residency). In addition, simulation experience based on residency will be made available as additional educational opportunities. Core requirements will include team based interprofessional approach to emergency management as well as development of focused history taking, physical examination and communication skills.

Evaluation Methods:

Self assessment MCQ for didactics and instructor review of simulation experience.

Prerequisites:

Successful completion of M3 Required Clerkships

Clerkship Director:

Dr. Mary R. Smith (Director), Dr. Imran I Ali (Co-Director)

Clerkship Coordinator:

Val King

Phone Number: 419-383-4458

Email: Val.king@utoledo.edu

Special Requirements:

Successful completion of all M3 Required rotations

AAMC Hot Topics Addressed in this Elective Clerkship:

Please indicate “N/A” if not applicable

- Biomedical informatics
- Communication skills
- Evidence-based medicine
- Health care financing
- Health care systems
- Health care quality improvement
- Medical jurisprudence
- Pain management