

Employer: Shively Brothers
Contact: Charles Vega
Job Title: Metallurgical Lab Lead
Resume Receipt E-mail: charles.vega@shivelybros.com

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS:

1. Approve material within established criteria and specifications.
2. Responsible for routine sediment analysis and or tests on submitted or self-collected samples of parts or substances related to the manufacturing process.
3. Make decisions within the limits of general standards and procedures.
4. Lab tech will perform metallurgical testing as required under the guidance of metallurgist and as spelled out in the TIS related to the required testing.
5. Develop and maintain all charting and reporting required for both sediment and metallurgical processes.
6. Maintain all safety and other related issues as it pertains to the burden carrier.
7. Comply with all systems and procedures as set out in the Global Manufacturing System (Client).
8. Will operate all lab equipment for both metallurgical and sediment testing.
9. Will act in a professional manner when dealing with other GM team members as they perform responsibilities both inside and outside the lab environment.
10. Will assist with problem solving issues as required by engineering staff as they relate to all manufacturing processes.
11. Maintains safety and good housekeeping standards.
12. Regular operation of: saws, mounting and polishing equipment, hardness testers, Microscope.

Contact Information:
charles.vega@shivelybros.com
419-205-3083