FAMILY NURSE PRACTITIONER
GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

The Family Nurse Practitioner Graduate Certificate program is offered to individuals who have completed a master’s degree in nursing and who desire to obtain specialized knowledge to seek certification as an FNP. Graduates of the program will be qualified to take national FNP certification examinations.

The program is offered in a four-semester, part-time option. The curriculum is designed to prepare professional nurses for the FNP role in primary nursing care. The curriculum includes a minimum of 600 contact hours for clinical practice and laboratory experiences.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO
COLLEGE OF NURSING

The University of Toledo (UT) College of Nursing is located on the UT Health Science campus in a residential area of south Toledo. It is considered by many to be one of the most technologically advanced campuses in the nation. The College of Nursing, established in 1971, is a major provider of undergraduate and graduate nursing education in northwest Ohio.

The UT College of Nursing faculty, facilities and resources provide excellent opportunities for clinical nursing experiences, research, professional development and continuing nursing education.
