

Office of Adult Student Extended Services

Nontraditional Student Recognition Week November 5-9, 2012

The annual nationwide celebration of Nontraditional Students in Higher Education is held the first full-week of November each year. It is a time to recognize the nontraditional students on campus and highlight UT's adult student environment. Come visit our new Office of Adult Student Extended Services in Rocket Hall 1800 for one of the events below and learn more about our services.
