Nothing beats perfectly ripe tomatoes drizzled with olive oil and balsamic vinegar, with a twist of freshly ground black pepper. But summer isn’t the only time for great-tasting salads, as these three delicious winter creations prove.

Cauliflower & Beet Salad

Total time: 20 minutes.

Check your supermarket’s produce case for vacuum-packed cooked beets. To turn the salad into the perfect dinner for a chilly winter evening, just add roasted chicken or fish.

- 4 cups small cauliflower florets
- 3 Tbs. extra-virgin olive oil, divided
- 1 tsp. Dijon mustard
- 1 Tbs. red wine vinegar
- ¼ tsp. kosher salt
- 8 cups mixed salad greens
- 1 cup diced cooked beets
Preheat the oven to 450° F.

Toss the cauliflower florets with 1 Tbs. of the oil on a rimmed baking sheet. Roast until lightly browned in spots, 10-15 minutes. Remove and allow to cool.

In a large bowl, whisk the mustard, vinegar, and salt with the remaining 2 Tbs. of oil.

Toss the salad greens with the dressing. Top with the beets, cauliflower, and sunflower seeds.

Serves 4.

Baby Kale Salad

Total Time: 10 minutes

This is one of the few salads you can make hours ahead of time. It gets better as the flavors meld and the kale softens in the dressing. And don't be stingy with the black pepper. You'll be amazed at the extra flavor pop it delivers.

1 Tbs. fresh lemon juice
In a large bowl, whisk together the lemon juice, shallot, salt, and oil.

Toss the kale in the dressing with the Parmesan cheese and season with plenty of black pepper. (If you can't find baby kale, you can use Tuscan kale. Before tossing with the dressing, remove and discard the large, center stems. Then, working in batches of about 8 leaves, stack the leaves and cut them crosswise into thin strips.)

Serves 4.
