Free Homecoming CE Session

This year's Homecoming Continuing Education (CE) program will be held in a new location, Dana Conference Center on UT's health science campus. On Sunday, October 11, 2009, alumni and local practitioners will learn about Approaching Medication Therapy Management in 2010: Where We've Been, and Where We're Going. This topic will accompany the traditional Law CE that will highlight collaborative practice, prescribing, and other topics. Online registration for the Homecoming CE will be active on September 1, 2009. More information

Student Feature: The Power of Curiosity

Dr. Wissam AbouAlaiwi understands that discovery is a result of a lifetime of inquiry. A postdoctoral researcher in Dr. Surya Nauli's pharmacology lab, he is a testament to the power of curiosity. His hard work and dedication to discovery landed him national recognition on the cover of Circulation Research, a journal of the American Heart Association, last spring. Read more

CSI: Toledo and the science of fun

The College of Pharmacy will host its Second Annual CSI: Toledo event on October 17, 2009. The free event, which familiarizes high school juniors with the Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences program, allows students to solve a mystery using principles of pharmacology, medicinal chemistry and toxicology. If you know high school juniors who might be interested in participating, please refer them to www.utoledo.edu/pharmacy/prospective.
