(D) Definitions

Prospective student-athlete. A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade. In basketball, a prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the seventh grade. Four-year and two-year transfer students are also considered to be prospective student-athletes. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution provides such an individual (or the individual's relatives or friends) any financial assistance or other benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students generally. An individual remains a prospective student-athlete until one of the following occurs (whichever is earlier):
Prospective student-athlete recruiting policy.

(1) The individual officially registers and enrolls in a minimum full-time program of studies and attends classes in any term of a four-year collegiate institution's regular academic year (excluding summer); or

(2) The individual participates in a regular squad practice or competition at a four-year collegiate institution that occurs before the beginning of any term; or

(3) The individual officially registers and enrolls and attends classes during the summer prior to initial enrollment.

(4) The individual reports to an institutional orientation session that is open to all incoming students within 14 calendar days prior to the opening day of classes of a regular academic year term.

(5) After an individual has signed a National Letter of Intent or the institution’s written offer of admission and/or financial aid or after the institution has received his or her financial deposit in response to its offer of admission, the individual shall no longer be subject to the restrictions of Bylaw 13.1. The individual remains a prospective student-athlete for purposes of applying the remaining provisions of Bylaw 13 and other bylaws.

Representatives of athletics interests. A "representative of the institution's athletics interests" is an individual, independent agency, corporate entity (e.g., apparel or equipment manufacturer) or other organization who is known (or who should have been known) by a member of the institution's executive or athletics administration to:

(1) Have participated in or to be a member of an agency or organization promoting the institution's intercollegiate athletics program;

(2) Have made financial contributions to the athletics department or to an athletics booster organization of that institution;

(3) Be assisting or to have been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;

(4) Be assisting or to have assisted in providing benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families; or

(5) Have been involved otherwise in promoting the institution's athletics program, as defined by the NCAA.

Official campus visit. An official visit to a member institution by a prospective student-athlete is a visit financed in whole or in part by the member institution as defined by the NCAA.
Unofficial campus visit. An unofficial visit to a member institution by a prospective student-athlete is a visit made at the prospective student-athlete's own expense as defined by the NCAA.
