

Bylaws of the Board of Trustees

3364-1-01 Appointment, powers and authority.

The estate, property and funds, and the government, conduct and control of The University of Toledo are, by the laws of Ohio, vested in and exercised by a board of trustees. They are appointed by the Governor of Ohio and serve without compensation. Two of the trustees will be students at The University of Toledo, and their authority, terms, and selection will be in accordance with rule 3364-1-04 of the Administrative Code and applicable procedures. Rules 3364-1-01 through 3364-1-10 of the Administrative Code and other specific governing rules of the board of trustees are referred to in these rules as the “Bylaws” unless the rule is specifically referenced.

No trustee or committee has the authority to commit the board of the University to any policy or action unless specifically granted this authority by the board.
