

The University of Toledo - Main Campus Policy

IV-15 3360-30-15 Health insurance mandate.

Purpose: To require health insurance for University of Toledo students

- (A) All domestic students registered for six or more on-campus credit hours per term and all international students registered for one or more credit hours per term will have and maintain health insurance.
- (B) Students as registered above who do not have proof of insurance will be assessed a premium for single student coverage per term under the University's student health insurance plan.
- (C) Completed insurance waivers must be submitted by a date specified by the vice president for student affairs to eliminate insurance charges.
