In this issue:
- Infoed Global’s SPINPlus
- NIH Announcements
- NRSA Announcement
- Ohio Humanities Council
- Welcome to RSP

Infode Global’s SPINPlus is here! This is an improved resource open to faculty, staff and students to assist you in locating new funding opportunities. The link to the database and to create a profile is located on the Finding Funding page of the Research and Sponsored Programs website.

Watch for additional postings with quick and easy how to’s.

NIH News

NIH Salary Cap Increase
Salaries under grants and other extramural mechanisms may not exceed Executive Level II previously set at $183,300, and effective January 10, 2016, increased to $185,100. See NOT-OD-16-045 for additional information.

NIH Increases K08/K23 Award $100,000 Base
For applications due on or after February 12, 2016, several NIH Institutes and Centers will increase the contribution toward the K awardee’s salary support for the requested effort to a base level of $100,000. See NOT-OD-16-054 for additional information.

Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Awards (NRSA) Stipend Increase
The NIH will increase NRSA stipends by approximately 2 percent on average. The full range of stipend adjustments for FY 2016 is described at NOT-OD-16-047.

Ohio Humanities Council

Deadlines for Quarterly Grants
March 1, 2016
Draft submitted by February 8. Decision by April 15. Project start date beginning May 15.

June 15, 2016
Draft submitted by May 23. Decision by August 1. Project start date beginning September 1.

September 15, 2016
Additional information is available on the Ohio Humanities Council website.

Welcome to UT
The Office of Research and Sponsored Programs would like to welcome Norm Rapino, Executive Director of the Center for Innovation. The Center for Innovation includes Rocket Innovations and UT LaunchPad Incubation.

Research is to see what everybody else has seen, and to think what nobody else has thought.

- Albert Szent-Gyorgi
- Hungarian Biochemist
- 1937 Nobel Prize for Medicine
(1893-1986)