

THE CLOTHESLINE PROJECT

Thursday
April 19, 2012
11am-6pm
Centennial Mall

near Student Union
Rainsite: SU Trimble/South Lounge

Women's shirt-making sessions for The Clothesline Project

Friday, April 13, 10am-4pm:

Women's and Gender Studies Dept.,
4180-A University Hall

Tuesday, April 17, 10am-4pm:

Eberly Center conference room, 0180
Tucker Hall

Safe space for survivors of violence against women to make a shirt to contribute to the Clothesline Project display. Women are encouraged to bring one of their own shirts to decorate. Art supplies provided along with extra blank shirts. Completed shirts are donated to The Clothesline Project.

The Clothesline Project is an ongoing project bearing witness to violence against women. During a public display, a clothesline is hung with shirts. Each shirt has been designed by a woman to represent her experience with violence or by family or friends of women murdered.

Sponsored by
UT Sexual Assault Education & Prevention Program
UTURN: UT United for Respect & Nonviolence
1511 Student Union
saep@utoledo.edu www.utoledo/studentaffairs/saep