6. Restitution

Restitution requires a student to pay for damages to property of members or of visitors to the University, or for misappropriation of University funds, or for other expenses incurred as a result of violations of conduct standards. Such reimbursement shall be charged to any student who alone, or through group activities, organizes or knowingly participates in the events causing the damages or costs. Restitution may be imposed separately or in addition to any other sanction(s).

7. Fine/Administrative Fee

A fine requires a student to pay a sum of money (not to exceed $100). An administrative fee is assessed to assist with costs associated with an education workshop or program. The Assistant Director of Student Judicial Affairs or his/her designee shall determine the amount. Fines may be imposed separately or in addition to any other sanction(s). Students who request hearings in front of the Student Judicial Board may receive a fee to cover the administrative costs for the hearing, i.e. copies, supplies, materials for the hearing. The fines or fees listed below will automatically be assessed. Certain Residence Life policies include specific fines if a student(s) is found to have violated the policy. These fines are clearly stated in the Residence Living Guide.
