The Human Race Machine

Monday, November 17 – Friday, November 21, 2008

8:15 a.m. - 8:00 p.m. Student Union, Room 2500

A unique technological experience that allows participants to visualize themselves with the facial characteristics of people of different races. Come have your picture taken and then digitally enhanced to take on the characteristics of any of six different races--African, Asian, Caucasian, Hispanic, Middle Eastern and Native American. Watch the PBS video, "Race, the Power of an Illusion," take a Race Literacy Quiz and engage in a brief discussion at selected times. The theme is that race is not a biological concept, yet it has been used as a social construct for centuries to justify human oppression and continues to be a powerful social concept to this day. (An International Education Week event)

Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Student Services and the Office of the Dean of Students.
