

Welloween Health Fair!
Friday, October 30, 2009
UT Student Recreation Center
11am-2pm

Witch Way?: YOU are invited to participate in this spooktacular event! We hope that you will join in the Halloween fun by providing an educational and/or informational booth, health screening, entertainment, or other appropriate activity for our health fair.

Halloween Happenings: University community educational & informational booths, health screenings, DJ, free goodies, and of course, Halloween fun!

Trick or Treat: Each organization that participates will be listed in the program brochure, may hang their banner at the event.

Whooo: Welloween is promoted primarily to the University community in order to create a healthy campus.

Masquerade: Halloween apparel is encouraged. Costume judging contest will be held at 1pm.

The Gory Details (if you provide a booth or health screening)

Boooth Criteria: Booths should be interactive, educational, fun, decorated in the Halloween theme and geared toward university students, faculty, and staff.

Double Trouble: We recommend that organizations send two people to allow for breaks and time to visit other booths.

Smell My Feet: Please provide a treat (sticker, pencil, candy, etc.) for the participants who visit your booth.

Your Goodie Bag: Bring your treats, table covering (if you wish), extension cord (if you requested electricity), and any supplies you might need (tape, scissors, stapler, string, markers, pens, etc). Please bring a door prize with a note attached indicating who donated it. Throughout the event, we will be giving away door prizes and announcing the organization that donated the prize.

R.I.P. You will receive a confirmation with directions, info on parking, etc.

Cost: All UT booths are FREE!

Registration is due Friday, October 16, 2009. Mail the registration form to:
