1. Gender courtesies
   - Business – Men/women seat themselves
   - Social – acceptable to pull a chair out for a woman

2. Table posture
   - Comfortable – not rigid or slouchy
   - Hands in lap when not in use, no elbows on table during courses

3. Silverware
   - Move from outside in toward plate
   - Hold utensils with forefinger on top, forearms parallel with tabletop
   - Politely ask server for clean if it’s dirty or dropped
   - Never put used silverware on clean linen
   - Place silverware in the 5:00-10:00 position on plate to let server know you have finished eating

4. Napkins
   - Don’t UNFURL - fold lies towards you on lap
   - Put on chair seat if you excuse yourself during meal
   - Fold neatly to right of plate when all at your table are finished with dessert

5. Ordering
   - Select a medium-priced meal
   - Ask host for recommendations
   - Stay away from finger foods and anything that flips, slips, drips, squirts, or splats.
   - Be courteous to servers, but not overly talkative
   - No need to offer or argue to pick up tab – it is the host’s responsibility
   - Don’t order more than you intend to eat

6. Drinks
   - Don’t clank loudly while stirring
   - No chewing on ice cubes
   - Never stir with the common sugar spoon
   - Stay away from alcohol just one drink if you do

7. Courses
   - Pass clockwise
   - Taste food before salting
   - Pass salt & pepper together
   - Don’t stack plates when finished

SOUP -
- Spoon away
- Don’t dunk or crumble crackers

SALAD -
- If salad on plate, knife may be used
  - If salad in bowl - NO
- Used knife should be placed on butter plate

ENTRÉE -
- Cut one or two pieces of meat at a time - not all at once
- Place pats of butter on butter plate.
  - After placing roll/bread on bread plate, tear off only one bite's worth, butter it and eat
Manners Matter

The meal is part of the interview

1. Be prepared with small talk
2. Follow the lead of your host
3. Wait for your fellow diners...to be seated,...to start eating...to end the evening
4. If you must excuse yourself, do so between courses
5. Server serves from your left, removes from your right
6. Solids on the left, liquids on the right
7. Remember to thank your host

Table Setting

The Basic 4

Pace your eating - don't inhale - don't dawdle

Never talk with food in your mouth

When chewing food, keep your mouth closed

Put medium-size bites of food in your mouth
