Occupational Information Worksheet

Steps to conducting your occupational research:
1. Select a career that you would like to know more about.
2. Read each question and answer it using resources in the Career Services library or links from their web page. TIP: Use the web-based Occupational Outlook Handbook, FOCUS, and print materials in the Career Services office.

What is the occupation that you have chosen to research?

What are the average number of hours per day and days per week that a person works in this profession?

What kinds of activities would a worker at this occupation be performing on a regular basis?

Describe the working conditions for this occupation.

In what types of industries, institutions, or businesses would you find workers in this occupation?

What level of education or training would qualify you for this occupation?

What would you expect to earn as a starting salary for this occupation?

What other occupations are similar to this one?

What is the employment outlook for your chosen occupation?

BONUS: What are some majors you could choose that would be compatible with this occupation?
