

DEPARTMENT OF INTERDISCIPLINARY AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS

How do University College Degree Programs' bachelor degree programs differ?

	Adult Liberal Studies	Individualized Program
Target Students	Any incoming student-- College Honors program available to qualified students	Students with associate degrees or transfer students with diverse interest
Program Introduction	Introductory Seminar	Faculty/Advisor Review
Scope	Liberal Arts Based	Interdisciplinary and Intercollegiate
Capstone Requirements	Senior Thesis 4 credit hours	None
Alternative College Credit	CLEP, Portfolio, Field Experience/Internships	CLEP, Portfolio, Field Experience/Internships
Area of Concentration	Minimum 9 credit hours upper division courses in area of academic investigation	Developed by students and approved by faculty review committee
Electives	Establish emphasis area related to educational interests and/or career goals	Establish emphasis area related to educational interests and/or career goals
Admissions Criteria	2.0 Cumulative GPA	2.0 Cumulative GPA
Academic Advisers	Beth Gerasimiak Marie Johnson-Ham Kim Pollauf 419.530.3142	Beth Gerasimiak Marie Johnson-Ham Kim Pollauf 419.530.3142

Contact Information:

Interdisciplinary and Special Programs Department Chair, Margaret Fritz
Phone: 419.530.3341 E-mail: mfritz@utnet.utoledo.edu

University College Student Services: 419.530.3142

September 2008

