About Toledo Law

The University of Toledo — one of fewer than 20 universities in the nation with colleges of law, medicine, business, engineering, and pharmacy — is a nationally-recognized comprehensive public university with an enrollment of over 20,000 students.

The College of Law is housed in the four-story Law Center on the western edge of Main Campus. While law students may take advantage of the many benefits of being affiliated with a large university, such as our 151,000 square foot Student Recreation Center and Division I athletics, they appreciate the personalized service of on-site admissions, financial aid, and professional development staff in the Law Center.

Law students have direct access to the LaValley Law Library, which is located on the third and fourth floors of the Law Center. The library features over 42,000 square feet of study space with private study carrels, group study rooms, and a multimedia center. Library hours are 7:30 a.m. – 11:45 p.m. daily.

The recently remodeled McQuade Law Auditorium, located on the main level of the Law Center, is home to our Distinguished Speaker Series and several symposia and national conferences. For example, the annual Great Lakes Water Conference addresses legal and policy issues critical to the Great Lakes and features experts from across the U.S. and Canada; our annual “Day After” speaker features an attorney who recently argued a case before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Visiting Toledo Law

The best way to experience the College of Law is to visit campus. Campus visits consist of a meeting with a member of the Office of Admissions, a tour of the Law Center with a current law student, and, if requested, the chance to observe a class.

Campus visits are offered Monday through Friday between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Special Saturday visits and programs are also offered throughout the year. The Law Center is located immediately inside the west entrance to the University. Parking is available in the lot adjacent to the Law Center. Please contact the Office of Admissions to plan your visit.

Toledo Law awards generous merit-based scholarships to entering students.

- Dean’s Scholarship: These awards may provide full or partial tuition and fees for up to three years, provided that a stipulated grade point average is maintained each academic year.

- Legal Education Opportunity Grant (LEOG): Toledo Law offers LEOG awards to high-achieving candidates from groups traditionally underrepresented in the legal profession. These awards offer up to full tuition and fees, and may include a book stipend.

- Michigan Scholarship: Toledo Law will provide a scholarship to cover the out-of-state surcharge to Michigan residents. This scholarship is automatically renewed each semester of law school.

- Denton Leadership Stipend: Toledo Law offers Denton Leadership and Service awards to select applicants who have shown extraordinary leadership and promise. This one-time stipend is intended to provide funding for miscellaneous law school related expenses.

UPPER-LEVEL SCHOLARSHIPS:

- Top 10 Award: Students who entered Toledo Law without a Dean’s or Diversity scholarship, and who complete all first year curriculum and are ranked in the Top 10 of their class, will receive a scholarship that covers the full cost of in-state tuition for their second year of law school.

- Endowed Scholarships: Through the generosity of alumni and benefactors, there are numerous upper-level scholarships that students may apply for during law school. Students are urged to consult with the Law Financial Aid Office to identify these funding opportunities.

SPECIAL IN-STATE TUITION RATES

- Forever Buckeye: The new “Forever Buckeye” residency rule offers immediate in-state resident tuition to any Ohio high school graduate who leaves the state but returns to enroll in an Ohio college and establishes a permanent domicile in Ohio by the first day of classes.

- Ohio GI Promise: Qualified veterans, active duty, guard, and reserve service members and their dependents may attend University System of Ohio schools at in-state tuition rates.
