Dear Prospective Job Fair Participant:

The National Black Prosecutors Association (NBPA) cordially invites you to participate in our Annual Job Fair on Wednesday, July 17th at the Omni Atlanta at CNN Center, in Atlanta, Georgia. The goal of the National Black Prosecutors Association's (NBPA) Job Fair is to promote diversity in prosecutors' offices by providing a forum where law students, recent law graduates, and experienced attorneys from across the nation can meet and interview with prospective employers at the local, state, and federal levels.

The NBPA, established in 1983, is a professional member organization comprised of over 800 prosecutors. Our mission is to recruit, train, and advance the careers of minority attorneys as prosecutors at all levels of government. Our annual conference serves, not only as a job fair forum, but as a comprehensive legal training program for prosecutors. This year's 36th Annual Conference will run from July 14, 2019 to July 20, 2019.

The Job Fair begins at 8:00 am with registration and check-in; interviews commence at 9:00 am. The early registration fee for the Job Fair is $25 for law students and law school graduates, and $50 for experienced attorneys. Starting May 1st, the 2019 Job Fair registration fee is $50 for law students and 2019 law school graduates, $75 for experienced attorneys. On June 1st, the Job Fair registration fee increases to $100 for law students and the class of 2019, and $200 for experienced attorneys. Registration closes on July 1st.

In addition to the Job Fair reception, all Job Fair participants are invited to attend a career seminar entitled "Strategies for a Successful Interview". The seminar will take place on Tuesday, July 16th, from 4 pm to 5 pm at the Omni Atlanta Hotel at CNN Center, and will provide Job Fair participants with effective interviewing strategies.

Job Fair attendees are also welcome to attend the entire conference. Registration for the Annual NBPA conference is separate from the Job Fair registration. Students and 2019 law school graduates are invited to attend Conference seminars for free. However, other events, such as luncheons, dinners and receptions, must be purchased separately. For experienced attorneys and/or licensed attorneys, the conference registration is $450. Beginning March 1, the conference rate increases monthly through July 2019. The conference registration fee includes all seminars, luncheons, dinners, and receptions. Please visit the NBPA website at www.blackprosecutors.org for additional information about conference registration.

Legal Programs, Scholarship, and Contests

Ohio Driver's License Reinstatement Clinic

We are in search of volunteers to help with a series of clinics to help people to reinstate their driver's licenses. The volunteers will meet with the client, look through their suspensions, and determine the best course of action.

Representatives from the BMV will also be there to determine if the person is eligible for a fee waiver or reduction in fees through the new limited Amnesty Program. The volunteer will advise the client, provide them with a plan on next steps, and help them understand the process.

Toledo Municipal Court, the Public Defender's office, LAWO and ABLE, Criminal Justice Coordinating Council, License Intervention Program, and the Toledo Bar Association Pro Bono Program representatives will also be in attendance.

The first clinic will be Monday, April 1 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Frederick Douglass Community Center at 1001 Indiana Ave., Toledo, Ohio 43607. Future clinic dates at other locations will be coming soon.

There will be a training/run-through on Monday, March 25 at 1:30 p.m. at the Toledo Bar Association. Volunteers should plan on attending this training, even if you cannot attend the first clinic, but want to volunteer at future clinics. Volunteers should plan to bring their laptops, if possible.

Volunteers should have some familiarity with criminal/traffic issues as the training will focus mostly on the BMV amnesty program. We will not be able to provide more in-depth training due to the time restrictions of getting these clinics set up and done before the amnesty program ends.

VOLUNTEERING IS EASY!

Visit our online clinic sign up or contact Michelle Tussing at mtussing@toledobar.org.

The cost is $10 to cover a catered lunch. RSVP: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/cross-reporting-for-humane-and-human-services-tickets-54533596455>

The Animal Welfare Institute and the National Link Coalition, with the support of the Ohio Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW Ohio), will be hosting three regional seminars in Cleveland, Toledo, and Columbus to explore this critical issue and opportunities to establish and enhance cross-training and cross-reporting processes at the local level. These seminars will explore “the dark side” of the human-animal bond and its implications for human and humane services, family welfare agencies, prosecutors, law enforcement, and human and veterinary medicine. The seminars will describe new strategies, public policy, research, and programs to prevent family violence and to respond to its human and animal victims.

Topics to be addressed include the following: animal hoarding, animal sexual abuse, animal fighting, applicable statutes and statistics, case studies, and animal abuse’s specific links with child maltreatment, domestic violence, elder abuse, and community violence. The Competition was created to encourage relevant innovative scholarly works in the area of Labor and Employment, and to attract Ohio law students to the labor and employment law practice fields. A judging committee comprised of distinguished practicing attorneys and faculty members at Ohio ABA-accredited law schools will review the submissions and award first, second, and third-place cash prizes to the winning student-authors. The cash prizes for such competition have been established as follows: First Place: $3,000; Second Place: $2,000; and Third Place: $1,000. Funding for the Competition is sponsored by the Ohio State Bar Association Section on Labor and Employment Law—an energized community of over 1,300 lawyers representing employees, labor unions, and employers in Ohio.

Please share this opportunity with students who may be interested in participating. All students at ABA-accredited law schools in Ohio are invited to submit entries, pursuant to the rules of the Competition detailed below. 2. Judges will pay specific attention to these questions:

- Is the analysis original, novel, fresh, and/or innovative?
- Is the topic original and not simply descriptive – i.e., does the author handle the topic with originality and not simply describe a court decision or other legal development?
