RSVP POLICY

Please note The Office of Professional Development's RSVP Policy:

The Office of Professional Development will be following a strict RSVP policy for the 2017-2018 school year. Any programming put on by OPD that advertises that pizza or food will be provided, requires an RSVP by the date listed. OPD will only order food for those that RSVP by the deadline. This includes required programming, such as mandatory class meetings, specifically whether you are attending at 11:50am or 5:15pm.

Additionally, other programming such as networking events or events with alumni involvement, may list a required number of RSVPs by a certain deadline to go forward. If the number is not reached, the event may be canceled. Please RSVP to these events as soon as you know you will be able to attend.

RSVP early, often, and encourage your friends!

Ohio Lawyers Assistance Program (OLAP)

October 12th

11:50am - 12:50pm Auditorium

This session is required by the Ohio Supreme Court for those intending to sit for the Ohio Bar Exam. Please RSVP on Symplicity.

Journey into the Mind: Science of Implicit Bias and the Law

Thursday, October 25th

11:50am and 6:00pm, Auditorium

U.S. District Judge Mark W. Bennett – “Journey into the Mind: Science of Implicit Bias and Law”

Mark W. Bennett, a senior judge on the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Iowa, is a nationally recognized expert, scholar, empirical researcher, and educator on implicit bias. He is a founding member of the National Implicit Bias Network and has trained more than 1500 state and federal judges on implicit bias.

In 2009, with the assistance of nationally recognized cognitive psychologist experts, Judge Bennett was the first judge in the nation to develop and use an implicit bias jury instruction. His groundbreaking research includes an empirical study of implicit bias in sentencing by state and federal judges, the effect of Afrocentric facial feature and skin tone bias in the criminal justice system, as well as the effect of gender implicit bias in the evaluation and award of emotional distress damages in civil cases.

The free, public lecture is sponsored by the UT College of Law and the UT Office of Diversity and Inclusion.

11:50am: Pizza provided – Open to the public

6:00pm: FREE 1.0 Professional Conduct CLE (Ohio) for attorneys. Small reception in SLK following the CLE. Open to the public.

Programs, Scholarship, and Contests

The Legal Aid Society - Diversity Open House: November 6, 2017

On Monday, November 6, 2017, at 6:00 p.m., The Legal Aid Society welcomes 1L and 2L law students to attend our Fifth Annual Diversity Fair.

Hosted by Debevoise & Plimpton, LLP, the Diversity Fair will offer law students the opportunity to network with Legal Aid Society supervisors and staff attorneys who are people of color and/or LGBT, and learn more about internship and job opportunities at The Legal Aid Society.

Debevoise & Plimpton, LLP, is located at 919 Third Avenue, in Manhattan. The firm is generously providing their space for this event, in addition to supplying light refreshments for attendees.

For more information, email recruitmentbcs@legal-aid.org.

2018 Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association Ethics and Professionalism Essay Competition, sponsored by AmericanLawRadio.com and Malik Law

The Competition is open to all full- and part-time students attending an ABA-accredited law school and enrolled in a JD or LLM program. The first-place winner will receive $1,500.00. The winning essay may be published in the CMBA's Bar Journal. The second-place winner will receive $1,000.00.

The topic for the 2018 Competition is:

The Ohio Bar Examination application requires an applicant to provide information regarding the applicant's criminal convictions and expungements. (See Gov. Bar. R.I, Sec. 11(D).) In college, an applicant was convicted of a crime. On appeal, the Supreme Court found that the statute under which the applicant was convicted violated the constitutional right to free speech (e.g., protesting an elected official) and overturned the conviction. Is the applicant required to disclose the overturned conviction on the Bar Examination application? Why or why not?

Essays should be no more than 1600 words and will be electronically submitted in Word. The deadline for submissions is February 9, 2018. Winners will be announced no later than April 20, 2018.

For more information, including rules and submission forms, please go to www.clemetrobar.org/essay and follow the link for the Competition. You or your students may also contact the Competition's director, Tom Horwitz, at 440-892-3331 or by email at tmh@horwitzlpa.com.
